Description

Large, richly carved, matte and polished gilt bronze clock, likely depicting D'Artagnan and Madame D'Artagnan. The bronze is signed with the initials PG, and the movement is by Léon Aron, Boulevard Saint-Denis, Paris. It has a wire-driven mechanism. Resting on a blackened wood base and under its original glass dome. A high-quality piece with beautiful gilding. First half of the 19th century. In perfect working order. The clock measures 50 x 40 cm, and with the base and dome, 60 x 47 cm.
