Description

Large oil on oak panel, antique carved and gilded wooden frame, depicting the loading of the animals into Noah's Ark. The Lord commands Noah to build an ark and take his family and a pair of every living creature: this is how the story of this rescue is explained in Genesis (6:14-22). Through the multitude of moving figures and its complete menagerie, the composition of the animals entering Noah's Ark vividly conveys the imminence of divine punishment. Good condition, Dutch school, 17th-century oil on panel, 81 x 60 cm, framed 88 x 70 cm
