

Pair Of Empire Style Mahogany Buffets, 19th Century.

3 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Description

Pair of Empire Style Mahogany Buffets, 19th Century. A sublime pair of Empire style buffets in mahogany and mahogany veneer, resting on gilt bronze claw feet. This pair of buffets, opening with two drawers and two doors on the front, is topped with a beautiful veined sea-green marble. These doors reveal two interior shelves. The doors are centered with an elegant laurel wreath forming the keyhole escutcheon and highlighted with gilt bronze moldings. The front uprights are tapered and adorned with antique-style female busts surmounting palmette motifs. Beautiful and rich gilt bronze ornamentation, including claw feet, moldings, busts, drops, wreaths, and keyhole escutcheons. Includes keys, locks function. Beautiful varnished finish. High-quality furniture with clean, elegant

Dealer

DANTAN

Mobilier et objets XVIIIème, XIXème, XXème

Mobile : 06.81.50.13.37

Arras 62000

lines, in the style of Jacob Desmalter's designs.

These sideboards combine practical utility thanks to their generous storage space, allowing you to also display your art objects, decorative items, lighting, and clocks. Visually appealing with their harmonious and delicate curves, they will easily complement your interior. These beautifully proportioned pieces, crafted with meticulous attention to detail and from fine wood, embody the refinement of 19th-century Empire style furniture. They will bring charm and prestige to your home. Late 19th-century Empire style work.

Dimensions: Height: 104 cm Width: 139.5 cm

Depth: 51 cm. In excellent condition.