Description

20th century oil on canvas signed A. Siebenthal for Adolphe De Siebenthal (1895-1958) in the lower right corner and dated 1945 on the back. The painting bears the stamp of the "Aux Arts A Perrier," a gallery in Geneva. The work likely comes from around the Swiss Alps.A beautiful landscape, rich in summer light and hues, painted with soft brushstrokes and dabs of color that evoke elevation. The trees are the quiet subject of the painting, catching light at varying degrees, and illuminating colors as such. The background of the painting, starting at the line of shrubs and taller trees, begins to descend into blue, which becomes progressively lighter as it travels up the mountain as a shadow, and into the bright sky and clouds.About the artist:Adolphe de Siebenthal was a Swiss painter, born in 1895 and died in
