This painting is an antique oil on wood. It depicts nightfall at the edge of the forest. The foreground is occupied by a clearing, then, on the horizon, by trees and bushes. The sky occupies most of the composition; it is reddish-orange at the horizon and then a deep blue higher up. The color palette is subtle and superb. This painting exudes a great deal of charm. On the back is written July 1902, "Ninet". Technique: oil on wood. Dimensions: 27 × 19 cm. Condition: signs of wear and some losses. Period: 1900
