Description

Louis XV Period Fire Screen - 18th Century.
Charming molded and carved wooden fire screen, resting on a cabriole base with scrolls, characteristic of the Louis XV style. The shaped frame is surmounted by a delicate carved decoration of flowers and foliage. It is adorned with an antique tapestry depicting a central medallion with a stork in a landscape, surrounded by floral garlands and ribbons in the 18th-century style. Beautiful original patina, elegant proportions, and refined decoration. A charming decorative piece, ideal for an antique fireplace or a classic interior. The Aubusson-style tapestry features a medallion with a stork surrounded by floral garlands and ribbons. There are some losses at the top of the tapestry. The fire screen measures 98 cm high, 72 cm long, and 45 cm
