These unique pieces have been fully restored in our specialized workshops, with meticulous care taken at every stage: complete stripping of the solid wood frames, thorough treatment to ensure durability and stability, and complete reupholstering of the seats with new padding and high-quality black moleskin. Their bold silhouette, characterized by a rounded back incorporating a padded seat cushion, offers remarkable comfort while displaying a minimalist and geometric aesthetic typical of the 1960s. The slightly raw yet perfectly controlled appearance of the light wood frame contrasts harmoniously
