Description

An elegant pair of Bayeux porcelain vases, Langlois period, 19th century, featuring an emblematic design of Bayeux porcelain production. These vases have a baluster shape resting on a circular foot, with a flared neck and finely modeled swan handles highlighted with gold. The exquisitely executed decoration combines a rich monochrome palette of deep blue, orange-red, and gold on a milky white background, in an abundant and harmonious floral composition. The quality of the gilding and the precision of the decoration testify to the remarkable skill of the Bayeux manufactory during the Langlois period, renowned for its elegantly reinterpreted Oriental-inspired designs. Both pieces are guaranteed authentic. Period: 19th century - Langlois period. Manufacturer:
