Description

COD 11498 Large 17th-century religious painting. Oil on canvas artwork depicting a splendid Holy Family in a domestic interior. The Madonna is seated in the center, holding a book, absorbed in reading. The baby Jesus stands before her, clinging affectionately to her mother's hand. On the right, Saint Joseph is captured in a moment of repose, dozing with his head bowed. Joseph's sleep symbolizes contemplation and trust in God's plan, which often manifests itself in the form of a dream. On the left, a lit candle introduces another symbolic element: Christ is the light of the world. Finally, the basket of white linens glimpsed below is not merely a domestic detail but a reference to the purity of the Virgin. This painting, with its intimate and intimate composition, is of great pictorial quality and can
