Description

Elegant and perfectly proportioned, this walnut chest of drawers dating from the 1900s impresses with its quality craftsmanship and refined simplicity of decoration. It features four drawers with functional locks, each with a threaded keyhole, a key, and delicate moldings that accentuate the front. The canted corners structure the piece with a pleasing verticality, while a molding encircles the front, adding depth and elegance. The top, with its inverted cyma molding, testifies to the meticulous work typical of joinery from this period. The lower rail, carved and molded, provides a subtle decorative touch, perfectly balanced by the splayed legs that ensure stability and visual lightness. Made from warm, fine-grained walnut, this chest of drawers offers timeless charm and an authentic presence. It will
