Description

A beautiful portrait of a proud racehorse, saddled and in profile, with a pearl-grey coat, in the open setting of a racetrack. This large oil on canvas, in its typical frame with a wide, beveled cornice in cream-colored plaster with a gilt border, is a meticulously executed work. This beautiful painting, in very good condition, is a quality piece from the 1950s, in the style of English portraits paying homage to the equine race. A beautiful, aristocratic, and elegant atmosphere emanates from this canvas; a work that can be proudly displayed for its precision and the world it evokes. In good condition, this well-preserved painting is sure to delight any discerning decorator.
