Description

An elegant Louis XVI style mahogany games table, dating from the 19th century. It rests on four fluted, tapered legs ending in brass sabots. The apron opens with a drawer on each side. The tabletop is reversible: one side is inlaid with a chessboard, the other lined with green felt for card games. The interior reveals a finely inlaid backgammon board in light and dark wood, with side compartments for accessories. Very high-quality cabinetmaking. Beautiful antique patina. Good overall condition with slight signs of wear. Delivery within Metropolitan France: EUR150. Contact us for more information.
