Description

Chandelier with transparent beads Beaded Crystal Seven Light Chandelier Made in Italy 1970s. A lovely bed-room chandelier, with a Louis XVI basket-shape, fully decorated by clear cristal beaded festoons and beaded net, five curved arms ending with five E14 lights.Two additional E14 light bulbs emphasise the magical scenographic effect of reflected light thanks to the crystal festoons that surround them, for a total of seven lights, all with E14 fittings. The lower part of this circular crystal chandelier is decorated with blue pendant, blue crystal pendants and final ball. This Italian-made chandelier was produced around 1970s. Very good condition with original working wiring. Matching wall lights coming from the same private collection are also available, see art. A1558, see last listed picture
