Description

An elegant breccia marble pedestal richly adorned with finely chased gilt bronze mounts, Napoleon III period. Rectangular in section, it rests on a molded base also clad in gilt bronze. The slightly curved shaft is punctuated on the front by a substantial bronze drop decorated with scrolls, volutes, and foliate motifs, demonstrating meticulous and decorative craftsmanship. The upper section is embellished with a gilt bronze frieze featuring floral motifs and surmounted by a molded pedestal, ideal for displaying a bust, sculpture, or other work of art. The refined contrast between the marble with its purple and white veins and the warm gilt of the bronze lends this piece a striking decorative presence. Period: Napoleon III, 19th century. Materials: Purple breccia marble and gilt bronze. Dimensions:
