Description

Large sword, Chinese origin, late 19th century, Qing dynasty. A very beautiful sword with its scabbard adorned with bronze pieces and lacquer imitating shagreen. Note the exceptional quality of the acid-etched blade, bearing inscriptions in Chinese. A ceremonial piece of great decorative interest and extremely rare on the market. Very impressive size, the sword alone measures 96 cm in height. A collector's item in excellent original condition. Collection possible on site at Mas d'Avallrich, Montéscot 66200, France. Tel: +33 6 11 14 25 33. Invoice and certificate provided. Collection also possible from my stand at the Montpellier Antiques Fair, held every two months.
