Description

A Masterpiece of Light and Design: The 1960s "Giardiniera" If you are looking for a furnishing element that combines the art of sculpture with the functionality of lighting, the "Giardiniera" lampada da tavolo rettangolare 1960 is the perfect choice. This extraordinary piece, a pride of Italian production from the 1960s, is not just a lamp, but a true garden of light. The structure in fine brass is expertly shaped in the form of a vase with elegant tulips, a composition that exudes freshness and refinement. The cut crystal base adds a touch of preciousness, reflecting light magically and ensuring impeccable stability. The fabric lampshade diffuses a warm and welcoming glow, ideal for enhancing a high-class living room or a dramatic entryway. With impressive dimensions of 60 cm in height, 70 cm in width, and 30 cm in
