Description

A set of two rectangular black ceramic dishes, each decorated with a stylized fish motif in warm red and orange tones. Graphic and refined, the design reflects Oswald Tieberghien's distinctive modern aesthetic and his mastery of deep, expressive glazes. This is a matched pair rather than an exact pair, with slight variations between the two pieces, characteristic of handcrafted production. Oswald Tieberghien (1936-2023) is recognized for his sculptural approach to form and decoration, blending abstraction with figurative inspiration. 20th century.
