Description

Louis XV style commode, 18th century. This elegant 18th-century commode is a high-quality piece in the Louis XV style, perfectly illustrating the refinement of French furniture of this period. The curved, bow-fronted design features three drawers in three rows. The undulating rails delicately accentuate the sinuous lines characteristic of the Louis XV style. The remarkably rich veneer features a frieze and chevron pattern forming particularly refined geometric reserves. The sides are adorned with butterfly wing veneer arranged in wide, symmetrical panels, highlighting the beauty of the grain. It rests on four cabriole legs ending in elegant gilt-bronze sabots. The corner mounts, keyhole escutcheons, drop handles, and central ornamentation are also in finely chased and gilt
