Description

Large pair of giltwood wall consoles with foliate decoration. The openwork frieze, enlivened by a dynamic design of scrolls, foliage, stylized shells, and rocaille motifs, supports a red Flanders marble top. The openwork wall supports meet at a central pedestal decorated with stylized shells and pine cones. Designed to add rhythm to a wall display in a large living room or entryway, these highly decorative consoles, typical of 18th-century Italian craftsmanship, are characterized by a controlled theatricality, harmonious, flowing carvings, and elegant proportions. This pair is particularly distinguished by its size and duality. Probably Italian, 18th century. Dimensions: 71 cm H x 78 cm W x 50 cm D
