Description

11mm caliber service revolver, Model 1873. All parts are numbered G 47799 (G corresponding to 1877, the year 36,875 weapons were manufactured), and the screws bear the corresponding short number G 99. The year of manufacture is marked on the right side of the barrel: S 1877, S for Saint-Étienne. The top of the barrel is engraved Mle 1873. On the left side of the barrel is the hallmark M in a circle of General Maignien, Director of the Manufacture from 1873 to 1882, and the J of Chief Inspector Jeffroy. On the right side of the frame is engraved "Mre de St Etienne" and the M for maintenance above the grip panel. This revolver is in firing condition. The hammer and trigger still bear traces of their original straw-yellow color. The cylinder is perfectly indexed. It functions perfectly in both
