Description

Pair of Biscuit Porcelain and Gilt-Bronze Vases, Louis XVI Style - 19th Century
A pair of baluster-shaped white biscuit porcelain vases decorated in relief with winged putti holding floral garlands, in the neoclassical taste. Finely chased and mercury-gilt bronze mounts: scrolling handles, egg-and-dart and bead friezes, and a gadrooned socle resting on a cut-corner square base. A high-quality 19th-century work, distinguished by the finesse of its modeling and the elegance of its proportions. Overall very good condition. Sold as a pair. Dimensions : H : / L :
