Description

A lamp composed of a baluster-shaped cloisonné vase with a turquoise background, characteristic of late Qing dynasty production, showcasing the translucency of its enamels and its precious palette. The mount is made of finely chased gilt bronze, with bases adorned with aprons and gracefully scrolled feet. Through its balanced proportions and the meticulous design of its shade, it diffuses an ambient light while asserting a refined decorative presence. Total height: 73 cm. Depth: 42.5 cm.
