Description

Art Nouveau ice bucket. The Osiris motif is typical of this period. It features a red and yellow flower against a green background. The opalescent background adds further contrast. The silver-plated metal mount includes a foliate frieze and a handle shaped like mistletoe stems. The chased lid is decorated with a cartouche and leafy pansies against a striated background. The openwork knob features stylized acanthus leaves. A rare piece. Delivery is available but not included in the price.
