

A Piece Of Silverware By Maurice Mayer

1 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Sterling silver

Diameter : de la sous tasse 15 cm

Height : de la tasse 7,5 cm

Description

We present this incredible and prestigious 19th-century piece of silverware, crafted by Maurice Mayer (1801-1864), who was the silversmith to Emperor Napoleon III and, before him, to Louis Philippe. Our piece comprises a large chocolate cup and saucer, both decorated with engraved and chased oval appliques. The handle is in the form of a winged cherub, both pieces are multi-lobed, and the saucer features six cherub heads. This unique piece weighs 360 grams. Free shipping within France; please contact us for other destinations. (E26)

Dealer

Forezienne d'antiquités

Antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 06 73 22 83 89

10 bis avenue de la libération

Montbrison 42600