Description

Title: Folding coffee table with removable painted sheet metal top, gold decoration on a red background. Period: Mid-20th century. Style: Maison Jansen style / Neo-Directoire style.
Materials: Lacquered painted sheet metal, wood (folding base). Description: Élégant coffee table or side table composed of a folding wooden cross-shaped base and a removable oval painted sheet metal top decorated in gold with vine leaves and bunches of grapes. The top features a gold decoration of stylized scrolls and foliage on a deep red background, in a refined decorative style reminiscent of certain French productions of the mid-20th century, in the style of Parisian interior design houses. The folding mechanism allows for practical use and easy storage, typical of modular serving or coffee tables of this period. The piece
