Description

Rare Chinese armchair with dragons against a cloud background, crafted from Hongmu wood, exquisitely and finely carved. This curved chair is sculpted on all sides with dragons on the backrest, a grotesque figure in the center of the seat rail framed by bats with outstretched wings in the corners. The armrests are very short and shaped like clouds. The legs terminate in dragon claws. The seat is carved on the back with arabesques and clouds. Chinese work, circa 1880. An exceptional chair with abundant decoration, perfect for adding a touch of exoticism to a modern or antique interior. Restored to normal wear, in very good condition. In the world of Chinese furniture, one material stands out for its timeless elegance and aura of prestige: Hongmu wood, also known as "red wood." This precious
