A spectacular Mid-Century pair of gourd- or bottle-shaped vases in silver-plated metal with clean, organic lines. These pieces are distinguished by their generous dimensions, with the larger model reaching 58 cm in height, making them striking decorative objects. Under the base, each vase bears the stamp of the prestigious Italian firm "Jordan Sheffield Collection" - Jordan-Silverado, based near Rome. The name Jordan refers to the Italian design family of Antonio Jordan. The "Sheffield" designation does not indicate a British origin but guarantees a high-quality silver-plating technique, inherited from traditional craftsmanship. These pieces reflect Italian design of the 1970s and 80s, combining the classic elegance of silverware with very modern, minimalist forms. Beautiful visual
