Description

This work depicts a young blonde girl sitting on a sandy bank, at the edge of a path or stream. Simply dressed, the child adopts a slightly reclining, almost meditative posture. Her gaze, turned to the side, lends the scene an introspective and sensitive dimension. The palette is dominated by warm, earthy tones: ochres, sandy yellows, and softened greens compose a luminous landscape bathed in a calm atmosphere. This oil on canvas belongs to a naturalist or realist tradition, possibly influenced by late 19th-century European painting. Note the generous black frame that highlights the ochre and yellow tones of the painting. Shipping Europe 70EUR
