Description

An elegant and rare Louis XVI style marquetry wood salon table from the Napoleon III period. This table is unique in that it features four gilt-gilt decanters housed in gilt bronze supports, bearing the mark of the renowned Parisian firm Boin-Taburet (the goldsmith and jeweler formed a partnership in 1860). It boasts beautiful gilt bronze ornamentation and includes a drawer and a small mirror in the center of the tabletop, which is surrounded by a bronze gallery.
DIMENSIONS: 0.50m x 0.36m x 0.74m high. Each decanter is 20cm high. Delivery upon request.
