Description

A 19th-century walnut console table, characterized by its meticulous craftsmanship combining blackened wood and gilt elements. Its silhouette, reminiscent of a refined writing desk, exemplifies the Venetian decorative taste of the period. The uprights are finely carved with Nubian figures, lending character and individuality to the piece. The front opens to reveal three richly ornamented drawers, joined by a carved decoration of scrolls, fruit, and putti, demonstrating particularly delicate ornamentation. Of Italian origin, this piece is a fine example of 19th-century Venetian craftsmanship, combining formal elegance with decorative richness. Dimensions: Height: 98 cm Width: 162 cm Depth: 61 cm
