Description

A fine black chalk drawing with white highlights, signed by Armand Cassagne (1823-1907), depicting a view of Les Andelys and Château-Gaillard in Normandy (Eure), circa 1860 (small tear at the top). Accompanied by another black chalk drawing, likely also by Armand Cassagne, depicting a different view of Les Andelys, with a different perspective on Château-Gaillard. Both works are framed identically. Dimensions: 28.2 x 23 cm and 28.4 x 19.5 cm.
