Description

Timeless Elegance for Your Collection We are pleased to present a work of art of extraordinary presence and historical value: a refined 19th-century oil on canvas depicting the Notary Cosimo Biscosi. This portrait, originating from Southern Italy, captures the essence of the authority and intellect of the era, portraying the subject holding a book--a symbol of knowledge and professional prestige.With impressive dimensions of 90 x 70 cm, the work stands out for the depth of its features and a psychological rendering that only the great portraiture of the 1800s can provide. The painting is in good overall condition; the slight "wrinkles of time" are not flaws, but precious signs of age that bestow character and authenticity, making it an ideal investment for professional offices or
