Description

Beautiful antique linen and silk tablecloth, woven in the 19th century in an elegant damask with a hunting scene. Depending on the light, the fabric reveals a refined figurative scene depicting a stag, hounds, and vegetation, in a subtle interplay of light and shadow characteristic of fine antique damasks. It measures approximately 150 x 150 cm, plus a 10 cm border fringe, and has a lovely drape, ideal as a decorative overlay or centerpiece. I am presenting this piece, despite the fact that the tablecloth has six significant old repairs; it is an antique piece with a history. The repairs are visible but stable and can easily be concealed by a centerpiece, bouquet, or other decorative elements. While not monogrammed, it is offered with a complimentary embroidered monogram in the center, created in the
