Description

A striking monumental bronze sculpture of a life-size faun, standing an impressive 190 cm tall. This powerful and elegant figure captures the mythological spirit of the faun - the half-man, half-goat creature of ancient Roman mythology, associated with nature, vitality, and good fortune. The sculpture expresses dynamic movement and classical strength, while retaining refined anatomical detail and an expressive character. The bronze displays a beautiful natural green patina, which enhances its depth, texture, and timeless presence. Surface variations and the aged finish give the piece an authentic sculptural richness highly sought after by collectors of classical and garden statues. Dimensions: Height: 190 cm Width: 60 cm Depth: 40 cm In ancient Rome, the faun symbolized good fortune,
