

19th-century Vicenza Stone Fountain Spout In The Shape Of A Child's Head

950 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Stone

Description

A charming 19th-century fountain element, carved from Vicenza stone and depicting a child's head. This finely detailed architectural fragment was originally designed as a fountain spout, combining functionality with decorative refinement. Its serene expression and delicate features reflect the enduring influence of classical garden ornamental traditions and the Northern Italian Renaissance. Carved from Vicenza stone, renowned for its warm hue and durability, this piece displays a beautiful natural patina acquired over time. The wear on its surface enhances its character and authenticity, making it particularly appealing to collectors of garden elements and antique architectural fragments. Dimensions: Height: 30 cm Width: 30 cm Depth: 12 cm. Compact yet highly decorative, this sculpture is

Dealer

Florin Antiques

Meubles et Objets d'art du XVIIIe et XIXeme

Tel : 0034 671 362 406

Mobile : 0034 671 362 406

PASEO RECOLETOS 31

Madrid 28004

ideal as a wall fountain element, garden ornament, or interior decorative piece in classical, Mediterranean, or rustic settings. A refined and poetic 19th-century architectural fragment with a strong decorative presence.