Description

A soliflore vase in marbled glass with a long tapered neck and globular body, signed Delatte. The nuanced pinkish-brown hue, enlivened by speckled marbling, testifies to the glassmaking expertise of the interwar period and a decorative style characteristic of the artistic production of Nancy. The slender, elegant, and refined silhouette embodies the Art Deco aesthetic, favoring clean lines and a focus on materials. The signature refers to the factory founded by Verrerie Delatte, active in Nancy during the first half of the 20th century, renowned for its artistic glassware with marbled, multi-layered, and acid-etched effects, in the tradition of the École de Nancy. Characteristics: Manufacturer: Delatte, Nancy Period: Art Deco, circa 1925-1935 Material: Marbled glass (nuanced artistic glass)
