

18th-century Five-pronged Iron Hoe

95 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Width : 13 cm

Height : 54 cm

Description

A wrought iron harpoon-shaped spear with five pointed prongs. Used for fishing in rivers. Equipped with a long handle, it allows the user to harpoon fish and hold them thanks to the elasticity of the five prongs. An interesting example of folk art ironwork.
