

19th-century Pewter Tray Illustrating The Fable Of The Frog And The Fish

350 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Tin

Description

A charming pewter tray decorated with a relief scene inspired by the fable of the frog and the fish, a traditional tale with moral overtones. The tray features finely chiseled details, with the central scene rendered in low relief and framed by a delicately raised border. The composition captures the expressiveness of the animals, reflecting the decorative and narrative qualities typical of early 20th-century European pewter objects. Its compact dimensions make it ideal for a collector, as a decorative piece, or for display. The natural patina acquired over time enhances its historical charm and authenticity. Dimensions: Width: 23 cm, Depth: 20 cm, Height: 8 cm. Condition consistent with age and use. Beautiful period patina.
