Description

? Large Hand-Knotted Shiraz Persian Rug - Wool
- Traditional Tribal Design ? A genuine hand-knotted Persian rug with a powerful and authentic character. Originating from the Shiraz region in the Fars province of Iran, this rug incorporates the main decorative elements of southern Iranian tribal rugs, highly prized for their strong geometric compositions and richly symbolic motifs. Three large lozenge-shaped medallions structure the composition, surrounded by numerous stylized floral and animal motifs typical of Qashqai and Shiraz rugs. The contrasts of deep blue, warm ochre, and ecru create a rich and inviting palette that immediately draws the eye. Entirely hand-knotted in wool, this rug offers a beautiful density and a pleasant texture underfoot. The natural wool ensures excellent durability and develops a patina that improves with age. The fringes show some minor wear, normal signs of use for an antique rug, without affecting its durability or the overall appearance of the design. A surface cleaning has been carried out, reviving the colors and preserving the wool fibers. In a living room, dining room, or large living space, this rug instantly becomes a focal point, bringing warmth, character, and authenticity to the decor. Dimensions: 300 × 220 cm. Price: EUR620.
