Description

An elegant Paris porcelain bowl on a pedestal base, richly decorated with gold leaf gilding and adorned with an openwork design at the top. The body features a finely pierced gallery, revealing the bright white porcelain beneath. The mount and pedestal are embellished with gilded foliate friezes on a white background, in the 19th-century Neoclassical style. The whole rests on a square, also gilded, base, ensuring stability and elegance. Highly decorative, this bowl can be used as a centerpiece or as an ornamental element on a console table or other formal furniture.
