Description

Pair of cast iron posts, pillars, or columns, dating from the second half of the 19th century, in perfect condition. Standing 355 cm tall, they are decorated with Corinthian capitals with a 26 cm² cross-section, shafts adorned with 11 cm diameter fluting, and water leaves mounted on their octagonal bases, which are 97 cm high with a 21 cm² cross-section. By cutting the base below the upper octagonal ring, it is possible to obtain a height of 261 cm. You can visit our website: www.claudeaugustin.com
