Description

White marble bust of Count Rinaldo Della Luna after the model by Mino da Fiesole (1429-1484), Italy, 19th century. The inscription "Rinaldo della Luna sve. etatis. anno XXVII opus mini. ne. MCCCCLXI" is engraved around the base. A very fine 19th-century reproduction of the famous work by Mino da Fiesole, the original of which is kept at the Bargello National Museum in Florence. The sculpture is distinguished by the delicate treatment of the face and the precise details of the pleated doublet. It certainly comes from a Florentine workshop specializing in reproductions of works of art. Superb decorative presence, very good condition, beautiful patina. Height: 37 cm, Length: 40 cm, Weight: 25 kg. Shipping costs by professional carrier extra.
