Description

A pair of armchairs attributed to Maxime Old, upholstered in dark brown lacquered wood and light-colored fabric. The high, slightly inclined backs provide comfortable seating, while the straight armrests terminate in elegant scrolls. The tapered legs, typical of 1940s-1950s design, accentuate the clean, architectural lines of the set. The chairs have been fully reupholstered in a textured, ecru-toned fabric, creating a refined contrast with the dark wood frames.
