Description

Oil on canvas, signed lower right, depicting the famous Old Port of La Rochelle, bustling with fishing boats and overlooked by the medieval Saint-Nicolas and Chain Towers. The artist skillfully captures the gentle, slightly misty atmosphere of this Charente port. The delicately rendered reflections and pastel palette lend the whole a great harmony. French School, first half of the 20th century. Dimensions: Canvas: 72 x 55 cm. Antique molded wooden frame. Good overall condition. An elegant seascape, emblematic of the Atlantic coast, ideal for a marine art enthusiast or a seaside home. Signed lower right, also on the reverse.
