Description

Set of four mid-20th-century Tuscan terracotta statues representing the Four Seasons, Italy, 1950s. This elegant set of four Tuscan terracotta statues depicts the allegorical figures of the Four Seasons and was made in Italy in the 1950s. Each sculpture embodies a season--Spring, Summer, Autumn, and Winter--through traditional iconographic attributes, rendered with grace and exquisite detail. The warm, natural tone of the Tuscan terracotta underscores their Mediterranean character and timeless decorative charm. The statues exhibit harmonious proportions and gentle sculptural lines, characteristic of mid-20th-century Italian garden and architectural ornamentation. Ideal for both indoor and outdoor use, these pieces bring classic charm and poetic symbolism to a patio, veranda,
