Description

A charming Italian sculpture from the 1970s depicting a bear, hand-blown in Murano glass. The sculpture's soft, rounded lines gracefully express the animal's quiet strength. The glass's luminosity and the delicate forms reflect the expressive and playful character typical of Murano glass production in the 1970s, a period renowned for its bold yet elegant decorative forms. Compact in size but with a strong visual impact, this piece will find its perfect place on a desk, shelf, or in a collection of mid-20th-century Italian design objects. Dimensions: Height: 20 cm Width: 10 cm Depth: 8 cm Good condition considering its age and use
