Description

Authentic Thiers Lou Pastre "Genuine" small shepherd's knife, representative of the great cutlery tradition of the Aubrac region and the Auvergne. A piece of character. Compact and easily portable -- 10 cm closed and 18 cm open -- this knife is the perfect example of the Thiers shepherd's knife as it was carried daily by the men of Aubrac in the early 20th century. The spring works very well, attesting to careful craftsmanship and excellent preservation with some signs of age (see photos). The overall condition is perfectly consistent with the age of the piece. Dimensions: Closed: 10 cm Open: 18 cm Period: Early 20th century -- after 1900 Manufacture: France -- Thiers -- Lou Pastre Condition: Spring in very good condition -- beautiful antique patina Marking: Lou Pastre
