

Koch & Bergfeld: 6 Solid Silver Dessert Spoons, Berain Style Putti Decoration, Louis XIV

360 EUR

Signature : Koch & Bergfeld

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Length : 14,1 cm

Description

A superb set of solid silver dessert spoons in the Louis XIV style. The teardrop-shaped spoons are decorated with a Berain-style motif depicting a putto and foliate arabesques on a matte background. A cascade of coins adorns the stem. The reverse features the same decoration with a cartouche bearing the monogram "D" in place of the putto. The spoons are hallmarked: 800 for the silver content. A tripod vase: hallmark of the Koch & Bergfeld maker. The Koch & Bergfeld company was founded in 1829 in Bremen, making it one of the oldest silversmiths still operating in Germany. It has supplied royal courts, German embassies, and the UEFA Champions League trophy. These are very beautiful spoons with this unusual decoration, which was very fashionable during the reign of

Dealer

Anxtique

Objets d'art du XVIIIe au XXe siècle, orfèvrerie et objets de vitrine

Tel : anxtique@gmail.com

Mobile : 0607711514

Fax : anxtique@gmail.com

Paris 75000

Louis XIV. The polished finish of the putti and grotesque decoration contrasts beautifully with the satiny appearance of the matte background. 14.1 cm long 140 grams total Very good condition. Minor scratches from use. Collection in Paris or shipping via insured Colissimo. France: EUR15 Europe: EUR20 Rest of the world: EUR35