

Pair Of Monumental Urns In French Porcelain Mounted In Gilt Bronze, Napoleon III Period

5 500 EUR

Signature : Style de Sèvres

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 63

Description

An exceptional pair of large French porcelain urns in the renowned Sèvres style, richly adorned with finely chased and gilt bronze mounts (ormolu). Made during the Napoleon III period, these impressive vases embody the opulence and refinement characteristic of the most luxurious Parisian productions of the mid- to late-19th century. Each urn is decorated with a charming, hand-painted romantic scene depicting putti in a delicate landscape, framed by abundant gilt ornamentation. The elegant baluster forms are enhanced by sculptural handles adorned with classical female masks and acanthus motifs, while the domed lids are surmounted by pinecone finials--a traditional symbol of abundance and immortality. The porcelain features a luminous white ground enhanced by finely executed gilt

Dealer

Mora Antiques

Timeless Antiques with Style - Carefully Selected &
Worldwide Shipping

Tel : 0031642510212

Mobile : 0032469115104

Keramiekstraat 28

Bilzen 28 3740

decoration. The richly molded bases and mounts testify to the high level of collaboration between Parisian porcelain workshops and bronze workers of the period. A spectacular and highly decorative pair, ideal for prestigious interiors, a mantelpiece display, or for collectors of 19th-century French decorative arts. Height: 63 cm Origin: France Period: Napoleon III, 19th century Materials: Porcelain and gilt bronze (ormolu)