

Hidden Door Disguised As A Book

800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Quelques manques

Material : Leather

Width : 60 cm

Height : 193 cm

Description

A hidden wooden door with book spines, this door was part of a castle library. It allowed, via a secret passage, surveillance through a peephole concealed among the spines of the books, allowing one to be watched without being seen. It has a lock and 3 hinges; several book spines are worn and would benefit from a simple restoration with leather spines (see photos).
